Zoom Becomes SSO

On Thursday, Nov. 17, at 5 p.m., Zoom will become a single sign-on (SSO) application using LCCC Identity for staff only at this time. The faculty will be moved in the beginning of next year to Zoom SSO so that we do not interrupt classes during this semester. More information detailing the new method of login is available online.

Practical Nursing Students Donate Books

On Nov. 2, the Practical Nursing students collected 300 books generously donated by HCS faculty to be shared with health clinics throughout the world. The books were used by both nurses and doctors. Recently, books have been taken to the remote "cloud" region in Guatemala and El Salvador. Some of books will be shipped to Kuwait and Haiti.

Filmmaker Tours Campus

The college hosted a tour on Nov. 10 for filmmaker Robert J. Morgalo and his business partner Ozz Gomez, who are interested in working with the college to benefit students with real-world experience through a film studio being proposed for construction in Tamaqua. Morgalo, CEO of Outhouse Production Films, is proposing to build a $25 million movie studio on a 50-acre tract of land in Tamaqua to attract producers to take advantage of lower production costs. He met with local Tamaqua officials in October to discuss his plans. During his tour of the Schnecksville campus, he discussed student internship opportunities and ways that LCCC could be a partner in the project. Pictured: Dr. Ann Bieber, Ben Turano, Ozz Gomez, Larissa Veria, Elke Reichardt, Robert Morgalo and Dr. Cindy Haney. As part of the tour, the group visited Construction, HVAC, TV/Film and the WXLV Media and Design Center.

Slip, Trip and Fall Prevention

Slips, trips and falls account for a large percentage of medical incidents on campus and are the result from some a kind of unintended or unexpected change in the contact between the feet and the ground or walking surface. Attached are tips to aid in the prevention of slips, trips and falls.

Updated COVID-19 Guidelines from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) effective August 11, 2022 can be found here.

This updated guidance no longer differentiates between those who are vaccinated and those who are unvaccinated. The CDC advises that those individuals exposed to COVID-19, regardless of vaccination status, need not quarantine.

1. Exposure to someone with COVID-19:

If you were exposed to someone with COVID-19, follow these steps per the CDC guidelines:

- Start precautions immediately:
 - Wear a high-quality mask for 10-full days as soon as you find out you were exposed (day 1 is the first full day after your last exposure)
 - Get tested at least 5 full days after your last exposure
 - Watch for COVID-19 symptoms such as:
 - Fever (100.4 degrees or greater)
 - Cough
 - Shortness of breath
 - Other COVID-19 symptoms
 - If you develop symptoms, isolate immediately

2. Isolation and Precautions for People with COVID-19.

If you test positive for COVID-19, follow the steps below per the CDC guidelines:

- Stay home and isolate for at least 5 days and isolate from others in your home.
- If you had no symptoms, day 1 of isolation is the following day you were tested.
- If you had symptoms, day 1 of isolation is the first full day after the day your symptoms started.

SPIRIT & WELLNESS

30-Day Appreciation Challenge

As we begin the Thanksgiving season we have so much to be thankful for throughout the LCCC community. Dr. Bieber began a 30-Day Appreciation Challenge on Nov. 1, and that is continuing through November to recognize a faculty or staff member each day, Monday through Friday. That person will then begin their own appreciation challenge to thank one person each day throughout November.

As with every challenge you may choose the steps that work best for you –

- Call one faculty or staff member each day
- Write an email
- Compliment someone when you see them

You don't have to wait to get challenged – you can start your own wave of thanks to your colleagues. Let's challenge each other to recognize the unique and valuable contributions of our coworkers.
