LCCC Tamaqua Invites Students to Summer Application Day

Students who live near Lehigh Carbon Community College's Tamaqua site and who are interested in taking classes at LCCC this fall can tie up loose ends at the Summer Application Day at LCCC Tamaqua from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Wednesday, July 20. Prospective students can get assistance with the following:

- Complete their LCCC application for Fall 2022
- Have transcript(s) reviewed by an admissions representative to determine if placement testing is required. (Bring unofficial copies with you.)
- Register for remote or in-person placement testing
- Register for an upcoming New Student Orientation, Advising, and Registration (NSOAR)
- Speak with admissions and financial aid representatives
- Tour the Morgan and Scheller Centers

The Summer Application Day event is designed to help students complete their next steps towards enrollment at LCCC with ease. Applicants who have already completed placement testing and/or orientation would not need to attend.

Students should register online for a specific time slot for the July 20 session.

For those who need additional information or who have questions, contact the LCCC Office of Admissions at admissions@lccc.edu or 610-799-1575.

Dean Participates in Military Panel

Andrea Grannum-Mosley, dean of workforce, community engagement and technical education, will serve as one of three panelists in "Breaking Through the Brass Ceiling 2.0: The Rise of Women Veterans," sponsored by the Greater Lehigh Valley Chamber of Commerce Veterans and Military Council. The event will highlight three women veterans with stories of leadership in the military. The panel is set for Wednesday, June 22, at Moravian University. Registration begins at 3:30 p.m. with the program scheduled for 4-5 p.m.

Congratulations to LCCC's Beacon Conference Participants and Panel Award Winners

On Friday, June 3, eight LCCC students participated in the 30th Annual Beacon Conference, which showcases the work of student scholars at two-year colleges in the mid-Atlantic region. The conference, hosted online this year by SUNY Orange, brought together students and faculty from 13 colleges in four states.

Three LCCC students participated in the poster session:

- Kathryn Kelly: "The ACT UP Movement's Importance in Humanizing HIV." Mentored by Dr. Christine Bowditch. Women's / Gender / LGBTQ.
- Asher Smith: "The Dissolution of the Soviet Union." Mentored by Dr. Andrea Grant-Friedman. Political Science.
- Ashley Guava: "Bacterial Evolution: The Importance of Antibiotic-Resistant Bacterial Evolution." Mentored by Teresa Heisey. Biology.

Five LCCC students competed for panel awards, three winning the award for Best Paper and Presentation:

- Emily Foehrkolb: "Beyond Sexuality: When the Gay Movement and Race Intersect." Mentored by Dr. Christine Bowditch. Women's / Gender / LGBTQ panel. Panel Award Winner.
- Michelle Kenstler: "The Effectiveness of Rituals on Social Cohesion and Anxiety in Classroom Culture After COVID-19." Mentored by Dr. Robin Musselman. Psychology panel. Panel Award Winner.
- Mads Hennings: "The Versatility of Spider Silk." Mentored by Holly Morris. Biology panel. Panel Award Winner.
- Donovan Muick: "Properties and Functionality of Spider Silk." Mentored by Holly Morris. Biology panel.
- Jace Izellah Mary: "Newton's Law of Cooling." Mentored by Joseph Kazan. Empirical Research / Environment panel.

Panel award winners' papers will be published in the conference's Proceedings, and each winner and their mentor will receive a monetary honorarium.

Congratulations to all participants and their faculty mentors, and special congratulations to Emily, Michelle, Mads, Dr. Bowditch, Dr. Musselman, and Prof. Morris!

Faculty Coaching Available this Summer

Summer is an excellent time to work on syllabi, new course assignments, professional development activities, and any projects that you had to put aside during fall and spring because of the heavy workload. Perhaps you are also teaching during one of the summer sessions and desire some interactions with a coach to address classroom management or community building in courses that occur over short periods of time. There are Faculty Coaches who would be happy to collaborate with you this summer.

May 23-July 8:

Professor Jennifer Myskowski is available for zoom or for in-person sessions. Please contact her by email at jmyskowski@lccc.edu or by completing the Faculty Coaching Request.

July 11-August 19:

Dr. Robin Musselman is available for zoom sessions. Please contact her by email at rmusselman@lccc.edu or by completing the Faculty Coaching Request.

We look forward to working with you this summer.

StART: Online Incident Report Training

StART is LCCC's online reporting system. All submitted reports are viewed by the Director of Counseling and Community Standards, the Director of Public Safety and the Dean of Student Development, Equity and Inclusion. In general, you will be contacted by Brian DeLong, the Director of Counseling and Community Standards, when you submit a report. StART's mission is to maintain a healthy, safe environment for all members of the college community. StART is currently utilized for online reporting of violations of the Code of Student Conduct (behavior concern), violations of the Academic Honesty Policy (academic dishonesty), injuries that take place during class (course related injury) and Public Safety reports. For more information, review LCCC's Community Standards. If you have questions regarding StART or to schedule a StART training, please email Brian at bdelong2@lccc.edu.

Wellness News You Can Use - June

Please read more health and wellness news in the June issue of Wellness News You Can Use. "I think that age as a number is not nearly as important as health. You can be in poor health and be pretty miserable at 40 or 50. If you're in good health, you can enjoy things into your 80s." - Bob Barker
